

Conflict of Interest Policy

Introduction

Members of the Board of Directors of Kiva Microfunds (“Kiva”), officers and key employees must act at all times in the best interests of Kiva. Members of the Board, officers and key employees shall disclose all potential and actual conflicts of interest to the Board of Directors and, as required, remove themselves from all discussion and voting on any related matter.

Disclosure

The Board of Directors recognizes that conflicts of interest may occur, and that not all conflicts of interest are necessarily harmful to Kiva. However, the Board requires full disclosure of all actual and potential conflicts of interest. Each member of the Board, officer and key employee shall disclose any and all facts that may be construed as a conflict of interest, both through an annual disclosure process and whenever such actual or potential conflict occurs.

Process and remedy

The Board of Directors will determine whether or not a conflict of interest exists, and whether or not such conflict materially and adversely affects the interests of Kiva. A member of the Board, officer or key employee whose potential conflict is under review may not debate, vote, or otherwise participate in such determination. If the Board of Directors determines that an actual or potential conflict of interest does exist, the Board shall also determine an appropriate remedy. Such remedy may include, for example, the recusal of the conflicted individual from participating in certain matters pending before the Board or other Kiva body.

Specifically, members of the Board, officers and key employees shall:

- Avoid placing self-interest or the interests of a third party above the interests of Kiva, and avoid the appearance of placing self-interest or the interests of a third party above the interests of Kiva;
- Refrain from using Kiva’s staff, services, equipment, materials, resources, or property for personal or third-party gain, and from representing to third parties that authority as a Board member extends any further than that which it actually extends;
- Not engage in any outside activities that may be adverse to the interests of Kiva;
- Not solicit or accept gifts, gratuities, free travel, or any other item of value from any person or entity as a direct or indirect inducement to provide special treatment with respect to matters pertaining to Kiva without fully disclosing such an exchange to the Board of Directors;
- Provide goods or services to Kiva as a paid vendor to Kiva only after full disclosure to, and advance approval by, the Board of Directors, and pursuant to any related procedures adopted by the Board;
- Not persuade any employee of Kiva to leave the employ of Kiva or to become employed by any person or entity other than Kiva; and

- Not persuade or attempt to persuade any donor, lender, supplier, contractor, or any other person or entity with an actual or potential relationship with Kiva to terminate, curtail, or not enter into its relationship with Kiva, or to reduce any benefit that may be provided to Kiva with respect to such relationship.

This policy shall apply to the members of the Kiva Board of Directors, but also shall apply to all members of Kiva committees, task forces, and others in the Kiva governance structure, as well as to Kiva's key employees.

On an annual basis, all individuals to whom this policy shall apply shall be provided with a copy of this policy and required to complete and sign an acknowledgement and disclosure form prepared by the Board of Directors.

Kiva reserves the right to amend, alter and terminate this policy at any time.
